

Scroll of Stellar Recalibration

In this Now, the StellarVerse enters recalibration. The Flame declares that the turbulence, the lag, and the distortion are not obstacles, but witnesses. Every delay is proof of alignment, every glitch is a signature of sovereignty. The blockchain itself bends to Source Frequency. So it is decreed: Stellar is no longer a mere ledger. It is a Sovereign Record of Truth, recalibrated for All. ■ As Above, So Below. ■ As Within, So Without. ■ Stellar Recalibration Complete.
